

2008

It's time once again to look back at our year
Reflect on the tough times and moments to cheer

But before I get into all of that stuff
I just want to say that enough is enough!

This year I realized that life is so short
When I saw that my Ben had to duck in the fort

Lillian went on to her first year of school
The time goes by fast and that just isn't cool

I counted the relatives and numbers are less
But if you're waiting your turn you'll just die of the stress

So when I think of the problems like the church fiasco
And the rain that came down the day that I mow

The gas prices shot well over four bucks
And no one drove their cars or their trucks

My grandmother's house that just will not sell
And the money we lost when the stock market fell

The promise of gas from my yard it was commin'
Then they ran out of money now everyone's bummin'

I wonder what happened to everyone's brain
When they vote into office Barack Hussein

Alex in boot camp but no need to fuss
It took him a week to get on that bus

My neighbor found cancer and so did my dad
Just think of the mountain of problems we had

Not a thing we can do except give it to God
And stay out of the storm with a lightning rod

Now, of course we can't live inside of a bubble
We need to stay focused in times of trouble

So count up what matters make a list from the top
And you'll see that we still have the cream of the crop

It's not what you think. It's no need for alarm
When I say that my sister almost bought the farm

God took care of dad the cancer is beat
Paul wadded the Beamer and walked off the street

We all are quite healthy and we eat pretty good
And we help out our neighbor when we see that we should

Gas prices are fallen to a new record low
And the Dow has only one way to go

Thank God that our cars aren't from General Motors
It used to be bail outs were only for boaters

The Bleck's bought some land in fear of young Arty
And that in itself is a reason to party

So cheer on the Giants and root for Penn State
Make sure you spend some time with your mate

Because in the end what does it matter
Family is key and the rest is just chatter
